SUPREME COURT
COURT OF APPEALS

IN RE COMMISSION ON CHILDREN'S JUSTICE

ORDER

Before this Court en banc is the matter of children's justice in the State of Mississippi. Having carefully considered the matter, the Court finds that it should establish a Commission on Children's Justice to develop a statewide comprehensive approach to improving the child welfare system; to coordinate the three branches of government in assessing the impact of government actions on children who are abused or neglected; and to recommend changes to improve children's safety, strengthen and support families and restore public trust and confidence in the child welfare system.

IT IS, THEREFORE, ORDERED:

1. That this Court hereby establishes a Commission on Children's Justice (Commission) to develop a statewide comprehensive approach to improving the child welfare system; to coordinate the three branches of government in assessing the impact of government actions on children who are abused or neglected; and to recommend changes to improve children's safety, strengthen and support families and restore public trust and confidence in the child welfare system.
